Big Dreams Take Smart Planning

Anything is possible. That's the dream we have for our children, and, sometimes, the dream that takes our lives in exciting new directions. However, the cost of higher education, an important factor in achieving big dreams, keeps rising.

The Rising Cost of a Four-year College Education

Source of chart data: The College Board, "Trends in College Pricing 2013." Average college costs for four years of school include tuition, fees, books and supplies, room and board, transportation and other expenses as well as an assumed 5% annual rate of increase. This illustration uses the "Average Estimated Undergraduate Budgets, 2013-2014 (Enrollment-Weighted)" figures to project the hypothetical future costs.

The LoneStar 529 Plan

The LoneStar 529 Plan (the "Plan"), an advisor-sold plan, represents an opportunity to help you save enough for college. The Plan is a 529 savings plan administered by the state of Texas and managed by NorthStar Financial Services Group, LLC, the parent company of Northern Lights Distributors, LLC.

The Plan's tax advantages, affordable costs, flexibility and diversified investment options help make it simple to save and pay for qualified higher education expenses. You can use your savings at eligible colleges, universities, technical or graduate schools in Texas, throughout the U.S. and at select schools overseas.

The Potential Benefits of the LoneStar 529 Plan

The possibilities for your child are endless, and the LoneStar 529 Plan can make it easier to save more for the education he or she deserves.

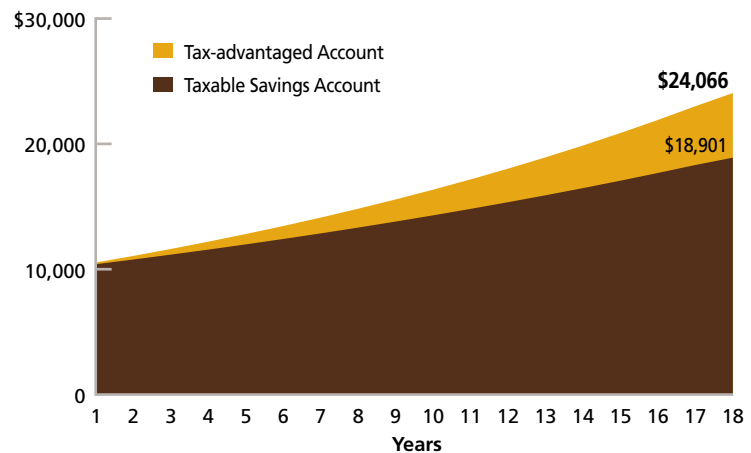

Tax-advantaged savings may help your account grow

Unlike a taxable account, the assets in your LoneStar 529 Plan account can compound tax free, giving you greater potential for growth over the long term. What's more, you can withdraw the money federal tax free, as long as it's used to pay for qualified higher educational expenses. When withdrawals are used for other purposes, any earnings are subject to federal income taxes plus an additional 10% federal tax penalty and any state and local income tax, if applicable. Please check with your financial advisor or tax advisor.

Please remember, when you invest in securities, your account value will fluctuate and there's always the possibility of losing money.

The Benefits of Tax-free Growth

This hypothetical illustration assumes an initial investment of $10,000 and an 5% annual rate of return. The taxable account assumes a 28% federal tax rate. The illustration does not represent the performance of any specific account or investment and does not reflect any plan fees or sales charges that may apply. If such fees or sales charges had been taken into account, returns would have been lower.

It doesn't take a lot to get started

Any U.S. resident, regardless of income or state residency, can open or contribute to a Plan account, including parents, grandparents, aunts, uncles or even family friends. And they can do so for as little as $25 per portfolio to start and $25 per portfolio for subsequent investments.

You may also choose to open your account with only $15 per portfolio when you set up an automatic purchase plan to transfer money directly from your bank account or from your paycheck. Just remember, systematic investing does not assure a profit and does not protect against loss in declining markets.

Use your savings at schools throughout the U.S.— and around the world

You can use your savings to pay for higher education at most accredited institutions in the U.S., including vocational schools, two- and four-year colleges and graduate schools, as well as at some foreign institutions.

Save more. Take advantage of high account balance maximum

The combined account balance per beneficiary for the Plan and all other Texas 529 programs may reach as high as $370,000.¹ During any time an account exceeds this limit, earnings can continue to accrue, though new contributions will not be allowed.

1. All assets, including earnings, under all 529 plan accounts established in any Texas-sponsored 529 plan for the benefit of a particular beneficiary must be aggregated when applying this limit. New contributions will not be allowed once this limit is reached. Earnings, however, will continue to accrue.

The Benefits of an Early Start

Opening a LoneStar 529 Plan account with $5,000 and adding just $100 each month until your child turns 18 can help you take advantage of the power of compounding—earnings generated from previous earnings. This may potentially increase your account balance over time.

And the earlier you start, the bigger your account may potentially grow.

Gift tax planning advantages make it easy to give

You can contribute up to $15,000 ($30,000 for married couples) per year, per beneficiary, or up to $75,000 ($150,000 for married couples) in a single five-year period²—without triggering gift taxes. In addition, contributions treated as completed gifts are excluded from an account owner's estate, making the Plan an attractive option for grandparents looking for a way to contribute to a grandchild's dreams.

You retain control and direct how funds are used

The Plan's assets remain in your name for the life of the account. If your beneficiary decides not to pursue a higher education, you can change the beneficiary to another qualified family member without penalty,³ keep the account for future use or make a nonqualified withdrawal. As stated on page 2, nonqualified withdrawals are subject to taxes and penalties.

Choose from a wide range of investments

The Plan offers a wide range of portfolios with underlying investments from William Blair, Artisan, T. Rowe Price, TIAA-CREF, DFA, Dodge & Cox, Templeton and The Dreyfus Corporation. Once you and your financial advisor decide how to invest, these teams of experienced professionals manage your assets with care. Of course, investments in the Plan are market-based and may rise or fall in value. The Plan offers portfolios with low fees. As stated in the current Plan Description, total Plan fees for the portfolios range from 0.66% to 2.48%, with a maximum sales charge of 5.75%. Fees are subject to change.

2. If the contributor dies before the end of the five-year period, a prorated portion of the contribution allocatable to the remaining years in the five-year period, beginning with the year after the contributor's death, will be included within his or her gross estate for federal estate tax purposes.

3. Please see the Plan Description for details. Consult your tax advisor to determine whether such a change creates a taxable gift.

Tailored Investments from Industry Leaders

The LoneStar 529 Plan's portfolios are designed to help you and your financial advisor find the right fit for your growth requirements, financial and tax situation and risk tolerance. You can choose the Age-based Option, the Static Option or a combination of the two. These options offer portfolios with a variety of investment allocations from industry leaders William Blair, Artisan, T. Rowe Price, TIAA-CREF, DFA, Dodge & Cox, Templeton and The Dreyfus Corporation

Investment options

Age-based Option Your savings are placed in a portfolio matched to your beneficiary's age. The Plan will automatically move your investment to another age-based portfolio when your beneficiary moves into the next age group.

When your beneficiary is younger, the portfolio will be weighted more heavily in equity investments. As your beneficiary approaches college age, the portfolio will be weighted more heavily towards fixed income and money market investments.

Before investing in the Plan's age-based portfolios, you should review the table on page 6 and consider additional factors, including your risk tolerance, personal circumstances and complete financial situation.

Static Option If you choose a static portfolio your investment does not change with the age of the beneficiary. Your investment will remain in that portfolio until you instruct the Plan to move it to another portfolio.

4. You could lose money by investing in this investment option. Although the money market fund in which your investment option invests (the "underlying fund") seeks to preserve its value at $1.00 per share, the underlying fund cannot guarantee it will do so. An investment in this investment option is not insured or guaranteed by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or any other government agency. The underlying fund's sponsor has no legal obligation to provide financial support to the underlying fund, and you should not expect that the sponsor will provide financial support to the underlying fund at any time.

Static Option

You may choose to invest in one, or any combination, of the portfolios below.

	Portfolio Allocation	Portfolio Objective
100% Equity Portfolio		Seeks long-term capital appreciation by investing all of its assets in equity investments.
Balanced Portfolio		Seeks moderate growth by investing in a balanced asset allocation slightly weighted toward equity investments over fixed income investments.
Individual Fund Portfolios
Large Cap Growth Portfolio	100% T. Rowe Price Large Cap Growth	Seeks capital appreciation by emphasizing common stocks with high growth potential at average, rather than high, prices.
Large Cap Value Portfolio	100% Artisan Value Fund Institutional Shares	Seeks long-term growth of capital by investing mainly in common stocks that the portfolio manager believes to be undervalued.
All Cap Active Portfolio	100% William Blair Growth	Seeks to track the performance and characteristics of a benchmark index that measures the investment return of large-cap stocks.
Large Cap Passive Portfolio	100% TIAA-CREF S&P 500 Index	Seeks long-term capital appreciation by investing primarily in common stocks by using a variety of proprietary quantitative models to rank stocks on the basis of valuation and momentum.
Socially Responsible Portfolio	100% TIAA-CREF Social Choice Equity	Seeks a favorable long-term total return that reflects the investment performance of the overall U.S. stock market, while giving special consideration to certain social criteria.
Small Cap Portfolio	100% DFA U.S. Small Cap	Seeks capital appreciation by investing primarily in a broadly diversified portfolio of common, small-cap stocks by using a variety of proprietary quantitative models to rank small-cap stocks on the basis of valuation and momentum.
Non-U.S. Equity Portfolio	100% Templeton Institutional Foreign Equity Series	Seeks to achieve high total return through capital appreciation and income by investing in a variety of global and international investments.
Fixed Income Portfolio	100% Dreyfus Bond Market Index	Seeks to match the total return of the Barclays Capital U.S. Aggregate Index by investing in primarily domestic fixed income and money market instruments.
Inflation-Protected Bond Portfolio	100% DFA Inflation-Protected Securities I	Seeks to provide returns that exceed the rate of inflation.
U.S. Government Money Market Portfolio	100% Dreyfus Treasury Securities Cash Management [†]	Seeks preservation of capital by investing all of its assets in a U.S. Government money market mutual fund.

Each underlying investment has its own risks. There is always the potential for losing money when you invest in securities. For example, the prices of small-cap stocks are generally more volatile than large-company stocks. There are special risks inherent to international investing, including currency, political, social and economic risks. Investments in growth stocks may be more volatile than other securities. With value investing, if the marketplace does not recognize that a security is undervalued, the expected price increase may not occur. Fixed-income investing entails credit and interest rate risks. When interest rates rise, bond prices generally fall, and the underlying fund or account value may fall as well. Diversification does not guarantee a profit or protect against loss.

Derivative instruments, investments whose values depend on the performance of an underlying security, asset, interest rate, index or currency, entail potentially higher volatility and risk of loss compared to traditional stock or bond investments.

You could lose money by investing in this investment option. Although the money market fund in which your investment option invests (the "underlying fund") seeks to preserve its value at $1.00 per share, the underlying fund cannot guarantee it will do so. An investment in this investment option is not insured or guaranteed by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or any other government agency. The underlying fund's sponsor has no legal obligation to provide financial support to the underlying fund, and you should not expect that the sponsor will provide financial support to the underlying fund at any time.

Your Questions Answered

Q: What is a 529 Plan?

A: Named after Section 529 of the IRS code, state-sponsored 529 plans are investment plans that receive special federal tax benefits to encourage families to save for college. Also referred to as qualified tuition programs, they are specifically designed to help families—regardless of income level—save for college expenses by offering the potential for tax-deferred growth and tax-free withdrawals for qualified educational expenses.

Q: What defines a “U.S. resident” for the purposes of the LoneStar 529 Plan?

A: All U.S. citizens and permanent resident aliens are considered U.S. residents for the purposes of the LoneStar 529 Plan.

Q: What are qualified educational expenses?

A: Qualified educational expenses include tuition, fees, certain room and board expenses, textbooks, supplies and equipment required for a student to attend classes at an eligible educational institution, and expenses for special needs services in the case of a special needs beneficiary who incurs such expenses in connection with attendance at an eligible educational institution.

Q: Can I open an account for myself?

A: Absolutely. The LoneStar 529 Plan can help anyone save for future educational expenses.

Q: How do I select the right investment option for my account?

A: The Age-based Option is a simple way to save for higher education costs. Contributions are placed in one of six portfolios depending on the beneficiary’s age. The Plan will automatically move your investment to another age-based portfolio when the beneficiary moves into the next age group.

The Static Option offers more control. Based on your situation and risk tolerance, you can choose to invest in one, or any combination of the static portfolios.

When deciding how to invest, keep in mind that the LoneStar 529 Plan does not require you to choose between the two options. You may choose to

- Invest 100% in the appropriate age-based portfolio
- Invest 100% in one or more of the static portfolios
- Split your contribution between the appropriate age-based portfolio and one or more of the static portfolios

Increased Earnings Opportunities

- The $99,716 median family income for families headed by a four-year college graduate was more than twice the median income for families headed by a high school graduate.⁸

⁸. Source of data: The College Board, “Trends in College Pricing 2011.”

Q: Will having a 529 Plan savings account hurt a beneficiary's chances for federal financial aid?

A: College savings normally reduce the amount of federal financial aid your beneficiary is eligible to receive; however, savings increase the total amount of money available to actually pay college expenses.

Generally, the current federal financial aid formula includes up to 5.64% of parental assets and up to 20% of the student's own assets in determining the Expected Family Contribution (EFC). If the beneficiary is your dependent, your 529 account will be included as one of your assets, rather than your child's asset. If the account owner is neither the parent nor the beneficiary, the 529 account might not be an asset included in the calculation.

While earnings from a taxable savings or mutual fund account are generally included as income in the EFC formula, 529 plan accounts are treated differently. If certain criteria are met, tax-free distributions to the student from your 529 account might be excluded from the parent and student income portions of the EFC formula.

See the latest Department of Education's Federal Student Aid Handbook for more details and any changes.

Please note that school-based financial aid does not have to follow the federal formula. Texas law provides that assets in a LoneStar 529 Plan account may not be considered in determining eligibility for Texas state-funded student financial aid.

Q: What if my beneficiary receives a scholarship?

A: If that occurs, congratulate your beneficiary, and rest assured that you can still use your savings to pay for expenses not covered by the scholarship, such as room and board, books and other required supplies.

You can also withdraw an amount equal to the value of the scholarship from your account. Earnings on this amount will be taxed at your tax rate, but will not be subject to the additional 10% federal tax penalty. Other options include leaving the money in the account or changing your beneficiary.

Q: What if my beneficiary doesn't go to college?

A: As the account owner, you always control the account. If your beneficiary chooses a path that does not include higher education, you can

- Keep the funds in the account Your account will remain available should your beneficiary change his or her mind

- Change the beneficiary You can change your beneficiary at any time, as long as the new beneficiary is a qualified family member. Please see the Plan Description for details. Consult your tax advisor to determine whether such a change creates a taxable gift
- Take a nonqualified withdrawal While this is always an option, keep in mind your account's earnings will be subject to federal income taxes and an additional 10% federal tax penalty, and any state and local income tax, if applicable

Q: Can I roll over assets from another 529 plan?

A: Yes. Rollovers, or transfers from another state's 529 plan without incurring tax penalties are permitted for the benefit of the beneficiary or a qualified family member of the current beneficiary once every 12 months. However, you must send the money to the LoneStar 529 Plan within 60 days of the withdrawal or direct us to transfer the money from your existing account. Some qualified savings plans impose a penalty for this type of transfer and some states recapture tax benefits. Please review the terms of your existing account.

Q: How does the LoneStar 529 Plan differ from a Coverdell Education Savings Account?

A: While a Coverdell Education Savings Account (ESA) offers similar tax advantages, annual contributions are limited and may not be sufficient to adequately fund a college education. ESAs also impose restrictions on who may contribute, based on income levels.

Q: Can I transfer assets of an UGMA/UTMA account?

A: Yes. If you are the custodian for the beneficiary, you may elect to place part or all of the UGMA/UTMA assets into a LoneStar 529 Plan account in your custodial capacity. However, there are certain considerations when doing so:

- Non-cash assets held in an UGMA/UTMA account must first be liquidated, as only cash contributions are permitted into a college savings account. You should discuss the tax consequences with your tax advisor before executing this transaction
- The account beneficiary may not be changed from the original beneficiary of the UGMA/UTMA account, and all withdrawals must be made for the benefit of the beneficiary, as outlined in the terms governing UGMA/UTMAs
- The custodian must notify the Plan when the custodianship terminates and the beneficiary is legally entitled to take control of the account
