this section.

As Account owner of this Texas College Savings Plan Account, I understand and acknowledge that the following will apply:

- ☐ Any and all payments to this Texas College Savings Plan account will be considered UGMA/UTMA funds (custodial funds) and become an asset of the Beneficiary.
- ☐ If I desire to purchase units that are not UGMA/UTMA purchases for my Texas College Savings Plan account, a separate Texas College Savings Plan Account must be established for such purchases.

Please review and fill in circles for all items in this section.

- ☐ I understand that as Custodian of a UGMA/UTMA account:
 - ☐ I am not the owner of the account, rather I hold the account as Custodian for the Beneficiary.
 - ☐ I may not change the Designated Beneficiary.
 - ☐ If I cancel the account, I personally will not receive a refund. Rather, a refund will be issued to the Beneficiary in order to comply with the intent of the UGMA/UTMA's creation and provide for proper taxation of any earnings.
 - ☐ It is my responsibility to refrain from exercising certain rights under the Texas College Savings Plan account in order to maintain the UGMA/UTMA qualified status.
 - ☐ It is my responsibility to notify the program when the custodianship terminates (the minor reaches the age of majority) at which time the Beneficiary becomes the account owner.
 - ☐ At the age of majority, the Beneficiary can notify the program that the custodianship is terminated and become the account owner and will have all of the rights of the account even if I fail to notify the Plan of custodianship termination.
- ☐ Maintaining UGMA/UTMA status of the Texas College Savings Plan account is my responsibility as the Custodian of the account, and I hereby release the Texas College Savings Plan from any liability for any loss of UGMA/UTMA qualified status due to the purchase, servicing, cancellation or exercise of the rights under the Texas College Savings Plan.
- ☐ Every situation is unique and the Texas College Savings Plan does not give tax advice, nor does the Texas College Savings Plan endorse the use of UGMA/UTMA assets to fund a Texas College Savings Plan Account.
- ☐ I understand and acknowledge that the Texas College Savings Plan highly recommends that I speak to a professional tax advisor before liquidating and/or investing in a Texas College Savings Plan UGMA/UTMA account.

The Texas College Savings Plan® (“Plan”) is administered by the Texas Prepaid Higher Education Tuition Board (“Board”). Orion Advisor Solutions, Inc. is the plan manager. The Plan and the Board do not provide legal, financial, or tax advice and participants in the Plan should consult a legal, financial, or tax advisor before investing. Fees and charges for the most recent quarter are available on our website at: www.texascollegesavings.com/expenses.

Non-residents of Texas should consider whether their home state, or the beneficiary’s home state, offers its residents any tax or other state benefits, such as financial aid, scholarship funds, and protection from creditors, that are only available for participants in that state’s plan.

An account could lose money including the principal invested. No part of an account is a deposit or obligation of, or is guaranteed or insured by, the Board, the state of Texas, or any agency or agent thereof. Interests in the Plan have not been registered with or approved by the SEC or any state. Investors should carefully consider the investment objectives, risks, fees, charges, and expenses associated with municipal fund securities. The Board may suspend, modify, or terminate the Plan or change investment approaches, offerings, and/or underlying investment funds at any time and without the consent of account owners or beneficiaries. The Plan Description and Savings Trust Agreement contain this and other important information about the Plan and may be obtained by visiting www.texascollegesavings.com or calling 800-445-GRAD (4723), option #3. Investors should read all Plan documents carefully before investing.
